Goal

Mannheim School District 83's Board of Education believes that the use of the Internet/network will further education by promoting the exchange of information and ideas and by providing global opportunities for students and staff. It is the goal of the Board of Education to include the Internet/network in the District's instructional program.

Curriculum

The use of the Internet/network shall be consistent with the curriculum adopted by the District as well as the varied instructional needs, learning styles, abilities, and developmental levels of the students. The Board expects the staff to utilize the Internet/network throughout the curriculum when appropriate. Students are encouraged to use the Internet/network in acceptable ways as an essential element in the learning process.

Acceptable Use

All use of the District's Internet/network connection must be in support of education and/or research, and be in furtherance of the School Board's stated goal. Use is a privilege, not a right. General rules of behavior and communications apply when using the Internet/network. The District's Internet/Network Acceptable Use Policy contains the appropriate uses, ethics, and protocol for the Internet/network. Users of the District's Internet/network have no expectation of privacy. Electronic communications, Internet use history, and downloaded material may be monitored or read by school officials, at any time and without notice.

Terms and Conditions

1. Acceptable Use – Access to the District's Internet/network must be for the purpose of education or research, and be consistent with the educational objectives of the District.
2. Privileges – The use of the District's Internet/network is a privilege, not a right, and inappropriate use will result in a cancellation of those privileges. If this policy is violated, the District may deny, revoke, or suspend access at any time and/or other disciplinary action including suspension or expulsion (student), suspension without pay or termination (employees). Anyone who uses the District's Internet/network to violate state or federal law will be referred to the appropriate law official.
3. Unacceptable Use – You are responsible for your actions and activities involving the Internet/network. Some examples of unacceptable uses are, but not limited to, the following:
 - a. Using the network for any illegal activity, including violation of copyright or other contracts, or transmitting any material in violation of any U.S. or State law/regulation;
 - b. Unauthorized downloading of software, regardless of whether it is copyrighted or clear of viruses;
 - c. Downloading copyrighted material for other than personal use;
 - d. Using the network for private financial or commercial gain;
 - e. Wastefully using resources, such as file space, printing supplies, etc.;
 - f. Gaining unauthorized access to resources or entities;
 - g. Invading the privacy of individuals or intentionally releasing a student or teacher's contact or other confidential information without their consent;
 - h. Using another user's account or password;
 - i. Posting material authored or created by another without his/her consent;
 - j. Posting anonymous messages;
 - k. Using the network for commercial or private advertising;
 - l. Accessing, submitting, posting, publishing, or displaying any defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, obscene, profane, sexually oriented, threatening, racially offensive, harassing, or illegal material;
 - m. Using the network while access privileges are suspended or revoked; and
 - n. Forwarding chain e-mails, viruses or any other damaging messages or information.

4. Network Etiquette – When using e-mail you are expected to abide by the generally accepted rules of network etiquette. These include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - a. Be polite. Do not become abusive in your messages to others.
 - b. Use appropriate language. Do not swear, or use vulgarities or any other inappropriate language.
 - c. Do not reveal personal information such as addresses or telephone numbers of students or colleagues.
 - d. Recognize that electronic mail (e-mail) is not private. People who operate the system have access to all mail. Messages relating to or in support of illegal activities may be reported to the authorities.

 - f. All communications and information accessible via the Internet/ network should not be considered private property.
5. No Warranties – The District makes no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, for the service it is providing. The District will not be responsible for any damages you suffer. This includes loss of data resulting from delays, non-deliveries, missed-deliveries, or service interruptions caused by its negligence or your errors or omissions. Use of any information obtained via the Internet is at your own risk. The District specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy or quality of information obtained through its services.
6. Indemnification – The user agrees to indemnify the School District for any losses, costs, or damages, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred by the District relating to, or arising out of, any breach of this Internet/Network Acceptable Use Policy.
7. Security – Network security is a high priority. If you can identify a security problem on the Network/Internet, you must notify the technology director or network administrator. Do not demonstrate the problem to other users. Keep your account and password confidential. Attempts to log-on to the Internet/network as a system administrator will result in cancellation of user privileges. Any user identified as a security risk may be denied access to the network.
8. Vandalism – Vandalism will result in cancellation of privileges and other disciplinary action. Vandalism is defined as any malicious attempt to harm or destroy data of another user, the Internet, technology equipment, or any network. This includes, but is not limited to, the uploading or creation of computer viruses.
9. Charges – The District assumes no responsibility for any unauthorized charges or fees while using the Internet/network. Such charges will be the responsibility of the user who occurred them.
10. Authorization – All users of the Mannheim School District 83’s Internet/network need to sign this policy annually while enrolled or employed by the School District.

Publication of Student Work and/or Pictures

In furtherance of the School Board’s stated goal, the Mannheim School District 83 Website has been developed. Through this site, increased communication between students, parents, teachers and other entities will be achieved. The District may wish to publish examples of student projects and/or student photographs accessible on the Internet. Due credit will be given to the author of published work(s). Photographs of students will not carry identifiable information such as the student’s full name or other personal information. Parent(s)/guardian(s) will be asked whether or not permission is granted for publication of student works/pictures.

Primary Student’s Alternate Acceptable Use Policy Wording

Mannheim’s School Board of Education realizes that the language in this policy may not be understandable and meaningful to younger students. It is with this in mind that they present this alternate Acceptable Use Statement. This statement in no way diminishes or eliminates any of the requirements for acceptable use as stated above. It is merely a way to make appropriate use more understandable for younger students.

Primary student’s language of alternate Acceptable Use Policy:

I will listen to my teachers and follow their directions when I use the Internet and computers at school. I will only use the Internet and computers to do the school work my teacher has told me to do and for no other reason. I will ask my teacher for help when I do not understand something or if I see something that makes me scared or uncomfortable. I understand that if I break any of these rules, I will not be able to use computers or the Internet at school anymore.
